I-House Hosts International Festival

Mark your calendars for the Multi-day International Festival October 12th-15th! The festival will kick off with a performance night on Monday, October 12th at 5pm and student group booths will be present on October 13th, 14th, and 15th from 11am-1pm. All events will occur on the student union plaza. More details at https://ihouse.utk.edu/events/international-festival/.

ELI Welcomes Em Chitty as Interim Director

This month, the author of “How We Really Talk: Using Phrasal Verbs in English and Spelling and Sound: Spelling Common Words in English”, Em Chitty has taught English as a Second Language for nearly 35 years, 13 of them at the English Language Institute. She has served as a Fulbright scholarship application judge and coordinated a US State Department Humphrey Fellow workshop on global challenges for women entrepreneurs. At UT, she piloted and taught an introduction to teaching for international graduate teaching assistants and has presented at a number of professional conferences. Her off-campus interests include singing jazz standards and gardening. Visit https://eli.utk.edu/staff/em-chitty/ for more info.

CGE’s Efforts to Track and Engage UN Sustainable Development Goals

In partnership with the Office of Institutional Research and Assessment and the Office of Research and Engagement, CGE is working to identify UT’s areas of excellence across campus to track our impact on the UN SDG’s. “Over time, we hope to capture more ways that our community engages the SDG’s – whether it be through research, teaching, or engagement,” said Jamie McGowan, Director of the Global Research Office. “Our goal is to showcase the extent to which our campus is engaging sustainable development.”
